Olive Branch Lodge, No. 31, met last Tuesday night with a good attendance. While only routine business was transacted, plans were formulated for some interesting things that will tend to increase the attendance at the meetings. Olive Branch will confer the third degree on two candidates next Tuesday evening, after which the new drill master will appoint the new officers for the degree staff.

Olive Branch has done some work this fall, and the coming month promises more candidates. Installation will occur Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Daughters of Veterans.

Philomena M. Wehrle Tent No. 25, met in regular order Tuesday evening, with a good attendance. It was decided to have a joint installation with the Sons of Veterans, which will probably take place Jan. 3. The Grand Army is cordially invited to be present. We hope to have an evening of business and pleasure, so mingled that our fathers will realize the true mission of our work. We wish to work together to perpetuate the memory of our fathers and to impress the rising generation with the reverence we owe to Old Glory. How we should study what a bloody fray this country endured, and how many widows and orphans were made during that struggle to save our flag. And now how fast those heroes are going to the last bugle call, just as cheerfully as when they went to the call when this beautiful land was threatened with the hand of treason. What grand old men are these veteran fathers of ours! Let every parent, whether your father was a soldier or not, teach the little ones what a sacrifice was made, that we may enjoy the freedom of this age, and teach them what a price was paid for those beautiful stars and stripes—"the flag our fathers loved." Teach them to reverence it. What could be more to humanity than love for country and flag, and the sacred objects of our beautiful order.

The last regular meeting of Newark Lodge, No. 13, K. of P., was held Thursday evening with a good attendance, and business of importance was transacted. One application for membership was received and referred to a committee. Two applications were balloted on and elected. Three candidates were present and received the Page rank. Next Thursday evening the Esquire rank will be conferred upon a class. The directors of the Pythian Company reported that a majority of those voting on the building proposition favored building on the East Main street property.

POOR REMEMBERED BY ORGANIZATIONS

Salvation Army, Children's Home, the King's Daughters and Churches Doing Excellent Work This Year.

The unfortunate of the city and the afflicted in any way are being well remembered this year and Christmas day will bring to them many little thoughts of good cheer. The Salvation Army, corps has been laboring for weeks in the collection of edibles and clothing for the poor of the town and the response was most generous. The business men were called upon and all aided the army in the great work. On Monday the corps will be busily engaged in the distribution of baskets, containing necessities and in many cases a small luxury. Preparations are also under way for having a tree and the distribution of gifts on New Year's, and also for a big dinner for the children at the army hall.

The orphan children of the county are always well taken care of by Sup't. J. C. Krieger and his ever provided exception. On Friday evening the regular Corps was entertainment given. The youngsters, of whom there were 200 present in the children's home, were assembled in the class room and a specially prepared program was given by them. It consisted of Christmas songs and carols and recitations in harmony with the holiday. A large tree was given each child. On Sunday Christmas, an elaborate turkey dinner will be served them. Thus they have all the comforts of a home, even if deprived of the love of parents.

The various clubs of the King's Daughters are remembering the poor and many circles are sending out baskets. A pretty custom of the King's Daughters is the sending of flowers and happy little cards to the homes of those bereaved during the year or where sickness is present.

NEW YEAR'S DAY AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Remodeling of the building will be nearly, if not quite, finished by the last of next week, so that there will be nothing to interfere with the plans for the New Year's opening Monday, Jan. 2. A great many have asked about the new plans and a special invitation is extended to all who are interested, especially to the parents of members. A good program is being planned, which will be of great benefit and amusement, and with the idea in view of showing to those who are interested just what the boys (both young and old) do in the Y. M. C. A. Look for the program next week.

The Newark Trust Company will observe Monday, December 28, as a Legal Holiday.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Wise Mother Lark

"Once upon a time," said Jaddy, "there was a wise mother lark which lived with her little ones in a nest in a cornfield. They began to live there in the spring, when the first little green shoots of the corn showed themselves above the surface of the ground. When the corn commenced to grow they made a fine shelter for the bird and her little brood. They lived there very happily all through the spring and the summer, growing fat on the insects which they found among the stalks of the ripening corn.

"When the summer had passed and the days of autumn came the stalks turned from green to brown. The mother lark knew it would soon be time for her to seek another home for herself and her family, for the farmer would soon cut the corn down. One of her little birds was brighter than the others. One day he went to his mother and said:

"Oh, mother, we shall soon have to leave our home. I saw the farmer and his two sons in the field today. He looked at the corn and said to one of his boys:

"Son, the corn is almost ripe. Go around to all our friends and ask them to come and help us to cut it."

"Have no fear, my child. The corn will not be cut yet."

A few days later the little bird said to his mother:

"Oh, mother, today I heard the farmer say to his son: 'Since our friends will not come to help us cut the corn we shall have to seek help elsewhere.' So I went to all our relations and asked them to come and help us to cut down the corn."

"Never mind, child," said the wise mother lark. "Do not be afraid. The corn will not be cut yet."

For a few days more all was quiet in the cornfield. The golden autumn sun pleased the mother lark, and she and her children were happy. But she did not forget that it would soon be time to move, and she flew around looking for a place for a new home.

Then one day her little son came to her and told her:

"Mother, now we really must move. I heard the farmer say to his son: 'Our relations have not come; neither have our friends. Tomorrow morning if you and I will come here and cut the corn ourselves.'"

"Now it is really time to move," said the wise mother lark. "When a man says he will do a thing himself and not wait for others to come and help him he will surely do it."

DOROTHY left her playthings in a heap on the floor. She pulled a chair to the telephone on the desk. She climbed into it. Her curly head reached the mouthpiece. She unhooked the receiver and put it to her ear, just as father did.

"Number?" said a voice so quickly that Dorothy jumped.

"Two-two-nine-six," she said clearly.

That was what father said.

In a minute, close to Dorothy's ear it seemed, another voice spoke.

"Hello!" it said pleasantly.

"Is this Santa Claus?" asked Dorothy as much like father as possible.

"Yes," said the voice sweetly. "What is it?"

Dorothy hesitated.

"You don't sound just like Santa Claus," she said.

"Well, I am," the voice laughed.

"But who is this—some little girl?"

"I'm Dorothy Grant."

"Dorothy Grant?"

"Yes," said Dorothy.

The voice seemed surprised. Dorothy hastened to explain.

"Dorothy Grant, 234 Park place," she said.

"Don't you know me?"

"Oh," cried the voice, "of course I do now! But I've never seen you."

"You're Mr. John Grant's little girl, are you not, Dorothy?"

"Yes," said Dorothy. "But, you see, he isn't home. He isn't ever, except Sundays and Christmas and Thanksgiving and such days. That's why I had to ask you. There isn't any one in the house except Rhoda and Soda. Soda's so old she's deaf. You aren't deaf yet, are you, Santa Claus?"

"Not yet," laughed the voice. "I can hear you quite well. Go on."

"Soda takes care of the house and father, and Rhoda takes care of me. But they don't understand about Evelyn, and tomorrow, when father'll be here, it will be too late, 'cause tomorrow's Christmas. And you must give Christmas gifts on Christmas, mustn't you?"

"Yes," said the voice. "What is it you want, Dorothy?"

"It's about Evelyn. I didn't hear it myself till Rhoda told me today when she dressed me—that is, I didn't hear all of it. You don't know Evelyn, do you?"

"Why, no; I think not."

"I was just about sure you didn't, 'cause, you see, you've never given her a single thing, she says. And she's older'n me—a little. She's always been lame, but she's never been sick till now. Think of being sick at Christmas time! And the doctor says she must have fruit and nice things to eat. And she can't, you see, because Rhoda says it took every cent there was saved to pay up the doctor."

"Where does Evelyn live?"

"It's 22 Monroe street. I've been there with Rhoda. And it's up ever and ever so many stairs. I don't know how you'll ever get there. Are you so very stout?"

"Not so very. I climb stairs yet quite easily."

"I knew you'd help if you only knew about it," cried Dorothy.

"What does Evelyn need most besides the nice things to eat?"

"She needs most everything," said Dorothy. "I bought her a Teddy bear with my own money. She just had to have it. But a dolly is quite necessary. Don't you think so?"

"And some picture books?"

"And a chair that won't hurt her back—soft, comfy one."

ARMY SOLDIERS

Given Unusually Heavy Sentences by Court Martial Board of the East.

New York, Dec. 24.—Unusually heavy sentences for delinquencies are being meted out to regular army soldiers convicted by courts martial in the Department of the East, as indicated by a batch of orders made public today. General Grant in numerous instances scores the courts for leniency.

Private Rufus E. Fennell, of Troop G, Tenth Cavalry, pawned his service revolver for two dollars, and was dishonorably discharged, thus dishonoring him for life, and given a year in the Ft. Leavenworth prison. Private James H. Holden of the 12th company, Coast Artillery, while "under the influence," wandered along Officers' Row at Ft. Hamilton, early on the morning of Nov. 19. He was sentenced to six months at hard labor and fined $24 a month for that period. The reviewing authority was "lenient," so the fine was reduced to $21 a month, or $126 in all.

Corporal Ralph C. Nelson "hung up" the post exchange for $7 worth of clothing and owed an addition $1 on a fountain pen. He was sentenced to be reduced to the ranks, continued for one month at hard labor, and fined $15. The reviewing authority pronounced the sentence "inadequate."

Private Charles J. Morgan Company E, Fifth Infantry, was found guilty of looting the post mail bag. He was dishonorably discharged and sentenced to five years in Leavenworth prison. This sentence the reviewing authority reduced to three years and approved.

FIVE MILLIONS

Lost to Ohio Farmers Through Disease in Live Stock.

Columbus, Dec. 24.—During the year 25,780 head of swine were treated with cholera serum, according to the annual report of the Ohio Live Stock Commission, filed with Governor Harmon. The value of live stock in the state is approximately $200,000,000, and it is estimated that at least $5,000,000 worth die annually from preventable diseases. The value of the stock ordered destroyed by the state was about $16,000, and all of this will have to be returned to the owners.

BIG GASSER STRUCK.
The Everett Gas Co. has drilled in a well near Purity, this county, which is estimated to be good for 7,000,000 cubic feet daily. This is near the No. 1 well of the company, which has a production of 3,000,000 cubic feet. Several other gassers are in the same neighborhood.

WILL NOT CHALLENGE THE AUSTRALIANS

New York, Dec. 24.—The directors of the National Lawn Tennis association have all but officially decided not to challenge again for the Dwight F. Davis international challenge cup, now held by Australia. As announced tonight's final meeting of the directors, Australia is too far away in the opinion of the directors, who favor in place of this tennis "classic" an annual struggle between English and American teams alternating between the two countries. This plan also finds favor in England.

OLD MEN RETIRED

Industrial Concerns Will Engage Only Young Men.

In these days of strenuous competition, when dividends count for more than men, the man who retains his youth is the man who holds his job the longest.

That is why one of the most successful dermatologists in Paris has warned young men to take good care of the hair. If you grow bald at 30 or 35 or even when you are older, your bald spot will so far as appearance goes add ten years to your age.

Men who have hair should be all means keep it. In later years it may mean a livelihood to yourself and family.

Dandruff means falling hair; falling hair means dandruff. Now falling hair and dandruff now. Go to Evans' drug store and get a large 50-cent bottle of Parisian Sage. It will guarantee to stop falling hair; to drive out all dandruff and kill the dandruff germ—or money back.

Remember that the man with a bald head who seeks a position is handicapped at the start. Parisian Sage will make hair grow, will give a lustrous appearance that denotes health and youthfulness. For sale by Evans' drug store and drug-gists everywhere. Girl with Auburn hair on every bottle.

JOHNSON ISSUES AN ULTIMATUM

Chicago, Dec. 24.—Ready at any time to meet anybody, in a fight outside the state, and I will have a purse of at least $5,000 for my end, is the ultimatum handed out here by Jack Johnson in answer to a challenge from Al Kaufman, the Frisco heavyweight who helped train the negro for his fight with Jeffries. The deft came as a sort of Christmas gift to the title holder, who is wearing of inaction.

Kaufman's challenge calls for a battle within six months for a year. Plans or purse are not mentioned, but it is hinted that some coasting man is anxious to stage a big bill, will hang up some tawny financial inducements.

MORRIS AFTER EASTERN FIGHT

New York, Dec. 24.—Carl Morris, the "hope of the white race," who knocked out Marvin Hart in the third round of their fight in Oklahoma Tuesday night is coming east prepared to take on all comers in the heavyweight class. If he is not matched with the winner of the Barry-Ross fight in Memphis, Monday night, he will find an opponent in the winner of a fight just arranged between Tommy Ryan's pupil, Con. O'Kelly and Al Kubiak in Syracuse on January 15.

A GOOD COMPLEXION ADDS CHARM TO ANY WOMAN.

Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets Will Produce Good Complexions.

Among the many charms for which women are especially noted, not one of them is so quickly recognized and admired as a good complexion.

Every woman, regardless of the station she may occupy in society, owes it to herself as well as her associates to properly safeguard the beauties with which nature has endowed her.

The inactivity of the liver and bowels is the direct cause of pimples, sallowness, muddiness, skin and many other blemishes common to a poor complexion.

Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets are largely composed of dandelion, and any physician will tell you there is nothing better to create a healthy condition of the skin and complexion. A 25-cent package of these tablets contains enough of the remedy for a fair trial and your money will be cheerfully returned by Erman & Son if you are not greatly benefitted by their use.

Do not delay but give Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets a fair trial and you will agree that all our claims are absolutely true.

His Christmas Gift.
The following story is told of a little boy, three years old, who lives in Atlanta:

His mother had been telling him the story of the birth of Christ.

The next morning he went to the trunk which contained his clothing, took out a cloak and then put his cap on.

"Where are you going?" he was asked.

And the little fellow replied: "I'm going to God, and you have all got to go with me. I've got to take that poor little baby some Santa Claus."

AMUSEMENTS

Theatricals and Holidays Conflict

For several weeks preceding Christmas, the theatrical world moves somewhat slowly and but until the holiday spirit has been duly manifested by the distribution of all the gifts and Christmas night comes, does the public mind again turn toward the seeking of amusement and the theatre then comes into its own for another season.

Many of the houses close the week preparatory to the day of festivity and even in the vaudeville wheel the places that keep the lights burning are few. Manager Shea of the Auditorium theatre ventured a try and put Hyak's Theatre Party, a very fair repertoire company, in for the entire week, but it is to the regret of all parties interested, for the attendance has been decidedly poor. Matinee performances were also given every day, but they were far from even a making out proposition.

The theatrical business is one that refuses to respond to innovation in a town the size of Newark, and the fact that the productions fare badly when smaller things even of an entirely different attractive feature enter the field is probably due to the lack of a large enough transitory population.

The Orpheum theatre has been dark for the past week, but will reopen with a performance on Monday afternoon resuming under the same policy with which it has always been conducted, showing four acts with the pictures. The motion picture theatres, of which there are many in Newark, have all been doing a nice business as the time consumed for the performance is not long, and also continuous, so it makes a resting place for the shoppers between stores.

At the Auditorium for next week the first attraction will be a vaudeville show on Monday, with "Daniel Boone on the Trail." Tuesday night, Al. G. Field, with his big minstrel troupe on Wednesday. Clyde Fitch's last and greatest work, "The City," on Thursday evening, and on Saturday "Lena Rivers." The week is well and intelligently filled. The offerings are varied enough to appeal to every class of theatre-goers and each is the best in its kind.

Many of the picture shows are advertising special films and altogether the holidays promise much in the way of amusement and the most satisfied can surely find something to tempt them.

Future Attractions.

LAST NIGHT'S SHOW.

In spite of the inclement weather which caused a small audience to see the feature bill of Hyak's Theatre Party, "The Girl From My Home Town," a most excellent presentation was given, and it was appreciated by the people present, as was shown by the applause. The play is bright and interesting and was capably handled by every member of the cast. The offering tonight is "The Queen of the Rockies," a western melodrama.

MONDAY'S SHOW.

The theatres are over a popular place on a holiday and as Monday will be celebrated this year as Christmas, the management of the theatre has arranged a most excellent bill for the patrons. The Empire vaudeville show will be the attraction and six big acts will be offered.

The acts are billed as follows: Valette Sisters, European gymnasts and ring artists; Ina Belle and Bellow, in a decidedly clever comedy singing and dancing skit, called, "The Comedian and the Soubrette"; a novelty Pluison act by John Gidina who is fast winning fame in his chosen work; Master, John Gordon, the champion roller skate dancer of the country; Marsh Hill, comedian, in an act that is entirely new, and the Kasher Sisters, singing, dancing and character change artists.

"DANIEL BOONE ON THE TRAIL."

Daniel Boone always was a success. He was the greatest trapper and the best Indian fighter this country has ever seen, even as the subject of a play he is pronounced a huge success. Among the full blooded Sioux Indians, who are an important factor in the play, is White Swallow, he is 64 years old and is said to be the cleverest Indian actor and mimic of the stage. Another Indian to whom considerable interest attaches, is Joe Frog, 76 years old and a veteran of the Custer massacre. The Indians are Ogallala Sioux from the Pine Ridge Reservation, Fort Robinson, Nebraska. Daniel Boone is a scenic and historical production. The opening scene of the play show a genuine tribe of Sioux Indians holding a pow-wow and smoking the pipe of peace. The end of the act shows a sudden attack by the Indians, misled by a renegade white man into betraying Boone's friendship for them.

In the last act we see our hero happily married, the villain dead, having taken his own life. The Indians realizing the folly of having "Long Knife" for an enemy, come again to smoke the pipe of peace and plead for his friendship. Altogether it forms a very pretty story, a true picture of the life in the early days and makes our heart swell with pride and admiration for the truly great character of Daniel Boone. At the Auditorium on Tuesday, Dec. 27th, for one performance.

With what is generally admitted to be the greatest minstrel organization of his career, Mr. Al. G. Field will appear at the Auditorium theatre on Dec. 28th, for two performances. This season's very elaborate first part entitled "Minstrelsy in All Ages" will serve to introduce the evolution of minstrelsy.

THE AL. G. FIELD GREATER MINSTRELS.

With what is generally admitted to be the greatest minstrel organization of his career, Mr. Al. G. Field will appear at the Auditorium theatre on Dec. 28th, for two performances. This season's very elaborate first part entitled "Minstrelsy in All Ages" will serve to introduce the evolution of minstrelsy.

streets in four scenes presenting in the final transformation the pretentious biblical spectacle, "David the Minstrel and His Harp of One Thousand Strings at the Court of Saul." The Festival of Flowers; The Court of Minus, and American Minstrelsy in all of which numbers the entire company of sixty-five singers and dancers will appear. The immense submarine scenic spectacle entitled "The Bottom of the Sea," depicting the deep sea-divers, their wonderful apparatus in actual operation and graphically picturing the many dangers which beset their most hazardous calling.

"LENA RIVERS."

"Lena Rivers," a dramatization of Mrs. Mary J. Holmes' well known and widely read book by Beulah Postner, will be presented at the Auditorium theatre on Saturday, Dec. 31, under the direction of Thos. H. Sewell. The production will be the same as that which was given the comedy during the metropolitan runs, and the cast will be of uncommon strength. Mrs. Holmes' book was presented to the public over fifty years ago. Its success was immediate and each succeeding generation has read the story and laughed at its peculiar comedy and cried with sympathy at its pathos. The play has been so dramatized that it adheres very closely to the story as woven by Mrs. Holmes.

"THE FLAMING ARROW."

"The Flaming Arrow" is one of the best plays ever written by Mr. Carver, abounds in unusual dramatic situations and lively climaxes.

The theme and situations are original and rich subjects for melo-dramatic complications. This attraction will be staged at the Auditorium theatre on January 2nd for two performances with the complete electrical and scenic effects.

"THE CAT AND THE FIDDLE."

In "The Cat and the Fiddle," the musical extravaganza hit which has been so widely heralded for the offering at the Auditorium theatre on an early date we are assured that no producer has so far given us so much for the money. It is a delightful musical play, abounding in sparkling epigrams and smart witticisms and is rich in melodies that are haunting and catchy. It is a musical spectacle, which is said to be one of the season's greatest successes.

Harry B. Watson and forty others, mostly girls and a number of new song hits are promised.

"SEVEN DAYS COMING."

Mary Roberts Rinehart, who with Avery Hopwood wrote the famous popular comedy, "Seven Days" that will be at the Auditorium theatre at an early date for one performance, is the author of the "Circular Staircase," "The Man in Lower Ten," "When A Man Marries" and other stories which the public has read with avidity.

"THE CITY."

One reason why the company which Messrs. Sam S. and Lee Shubert have sent on the road to play Clyde Fitch's last drama, "The City," has received such complimentary notices is, that each and every member of the cast was selected for his or her fitness for the character to be portrayed. Sam B. Hardy will be seen in the role of the ambitious young lawyer, "George Rand, Jr.," whose hopes are ruined at the very moment when success seems within his grasp. The role of his drug-crazed half-brother, "George Frederick Hannock" will be enacted by that sterling character actor, Edwin Caldwell. Those two men carry the climax at the end of Act 2, to a tremendous height, and endless curtain calls are their reward. That grand old couple of the stage, Matt and Rose Snyder, now rounding out a half century of active work will appear as Mr. and Mrs. Rand respectively, while Elise Scott and Jane Gail will sustain the roles of the two daughters, Teresa and Cicely. Wallace Wedecombe gives a capital character sketch as "Van Vranken," Edgar Lewis presents a strong characterization of the politician, "Voorhees," and Jessica Worth, Olivia Lowe and Arthur Galloway play their respective parts splendidly. "The City" will be offered for the approval of Newark theatre-goers next Thursday night, Dec. 29, when the Shubert company appears at the Auditorium theatre.

"THE GIRL IN THE TAXI."

"The Girl in the Taxi" will entertain local theatre-goers at the Auditorium theatre very soon for an engagement of one performance.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you" was evidently the slogan in the mind of the author while writing "The Girl in the Taxi," and the truth of the saying is found in the record-breaking triumphs achieved by this rollicking play in Chicago, where it ran for six months; Boston, where it repeated its Chicago success; and at the present time in all the principal cities of the country. "Charley's Aunt" held the palm as the funniest play of the age until "The Girl in the Taxi" put in an appearance.

Theatrical Notes.

The Orpheum theatre will open with a Monday matinee after being closed for a week preceding Christmas.

"Naughty Marietta," the comic opera written by Victor Herbert and produced by Oscar Hammerstein, with Mino Trentini as the star, is now in its second month at the New York theatre. This production is acknowledged to be the most pronounced hit of the season. The cast is the most remarkable ever seen in comic opera.

Sir Arthur Pinero has written a light comedy entitled "Preserving Mr. Pannure," which Mr. Frohman will produce in January. It is several years since Sir Arthur wrote a light play.

At the Belasco theatre in New York, "The Concert" is now well along in the third month of a pronounced success. The fact that this latest comedy production of David Belasco's is one that appeals to the highly sophisticated theatre-goers provides an interesting commentary upon the growth and development of this type of play-going.

William Gillette entered upon his second week at the Empire theatre in New York in the revival of "The Private Secretary." It will be remembered that Mr. Gillette is the author of this farce, which he has played more than two thousand times. At the opening performance, Dec. 12, a fashionable audience laughed long and heartily. The farce was most capably acted.

According to his custom, Chauncey Olcott did not act during the week before Christmas, but rested at his home in Saratoga. He will resume his tour in "Barry of Ballymore," December 26.

William Faversham has engaged Martin Sabine for one of the leading parts in his forthcoming production of "The Faun," by Edward Knoblauch. Mr. Sabine appeared with Margaret Anglin in "The Awakening of Helena Kennedy."

In a page devoted to actors appearing with the Liebler and company attractions in this week's Billboard, is noted that of Miss Georgis O'Hamey, Miss O'Hamey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hume of North Fourth street this city, and has been scoring quite a success in the farce, "Seven Days," in which she has a principal role.

Mr. Arturo Toscanini, Italian musical director of the Metropolitan Opera company, received a telegram from Paris signed jointly by Debussy and D'Annunzio, stating that they were working together on an opera based upon the martyrdom of St. Sebastian, and that they looked to him as the musical director of their choice to preside at its premiere.

The Schuberts have engaged Charles Cherry for the role of Duke Sergius in their production of "The Balkan Princess," which is now in rehearsal. Mr. Cherry last season appeared in "The Spill" at the Lyceum theatre in New York and the season before under the Shubert management, was the star of "The Bachelor."

Howard Estabrook, Frank Sheridan, Emily Stevens and Ruth Benson have been engaged for "The Boss," in which William A. Brady will present Holbrook Blinn before the close of the month.

Mabel Talliaferro, who is now living in Chicago and studying French and singing, expects to make her return to the stage before spring. She will act in a play written by F. W. Hall.

Liebler and company recently produced at the Princess theatre in Montreal, Canada, Louis N. Parker's new comedy, "Pomander Walk." The production was the first to be given on any stage and the piece was received with enthusiasm.

A protest against Sarah Bernhardt's production of "La Samaritaine" was made to Mayor Gaynor of New York by Edward Feeney, president of the American Federation of Catholic societies. He characterized it as blasphemous, but Mayor Gaynor replied he was unable to stop it.

William Harris, the famous theatrical manager and father of Henry B. Harris, was for many years an actor, with the old team of Harris and Carroll.

Back in the '70's playing the variety houses, a star act was that of Fred E. Levantine, who won praise in feats of equilibrium. Leaving the stage he assumed his own name and became Fred F. Proctor, the famous vaudeville manager, who is associated with B. M. Keith.

Next Week at Orpheum Theatre

The vaudeville bill which Manager Bassett offers at the Orpheum theatre for the first three days is made up of the following exceptionally clever acts: "Married For Money," a sketch presented by Fory L. Brott and company; the Great Lombards, Hilde, Brown, the Clayton Family Quartet and the concluding feature, the motion pictures shown by the Orpheumscope.

Fory L. Brott & Co., are heading the bill at the popular Arcade theatre next week, with a sketch entitled, "Married For Money," that has been a great success throughout the United States, appearing in all the larger cities. Mr. Murray has secured this act for the opening week. Do not fail to see this sketch; it will please you. The Clayton Family Quartet will be an added attraction, that will be especially pleasing to music lovers. The Great Lombards, and balancing equilibrist, the best in their line, will interest you, and Ritchie Brown, who bills himself as "The Crazy Novelty Entertainer" will furnish his share of fun-making. Orpheumscope has another feature film.

GREAT SOUTHERN THEATRE.

At the Southern Theatre, Columbus, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and a special matinee Monday and the regular Wed. matinee, Wagoner and Komper will present "Seven Days," a comedy by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, over which for more than a year New York has been screaming with laughter. "Seven Days," wrote the dramatic critic in the Scrap Book, "is the best farce I have ever seen. All the critics agree with me. And talk about combining. This play combines more good points than any I have ever seen in all my years of theatre going. First and foremost, it is funny, not in spots but all the way through."

Richard Carle's popularity, which has reached its highest point, has never been illustrated better than in connection with "Jumping Jupiter," in which he will be seen at the Southern Theatre on Thursday, December 29. This is strictly a "show," Mr. Carle.

Elmer Breen, who was killed at St. Louisville several days ago by being struck by a Baltimore and Ohio train, was an important witness in the grand jury in the case of the State of Ohio versus Mordecai Walter, who was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the lynching of Carl Ericson, and who was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. Mr. Breen was also credited as an important witness in the latter lynching trial.

The funeral was held in St. Louisville at 12 o'clock Saturday. It was held in the St. Louisville cemetery.

COSHOCTON MAN WILL BE GOOD

Prominent Friends Use Influence With Price to Bring About Reformation.

The fact that his brother, David, is amenable to reason, and that his influence toward better things, was freedom from the Columbus workhouse for Price, who was paroled by Safety Director McCune yesterday on the recommendation of Judge Samuel Nicholas and Prosecutor Joseph L. McDowell of Coshocton county.

Price is a member of a family that has won unenviable notoriety. He was serving a sentence of $200 fine and costs, amounting to $240 in the Columbus workhouse, and negotiations for his parole were started some time ago.

At the solicitation of Price's friends, Judge Nicholas and Prosecutor McDowell visited Columbus Friday and interviewed him at the workhouse. They then signed a recommendation that he be paroled and Safety Director McCune granted his liberty, after investigating the case.

Judge Nicholas said that he had succeeded in guiding Price's brother into the paths of rectitude and that he believed it would be charitable to liberate Price before Christmas.

The man was convicted of violating the local option law.

MOLDERS GET FIVE PERCENT WAGE INCREASE

Difficulty Between Apprentices and Wehrle Company Practically Settled.

At a conference held a few days ago between representatives of the International Molders' Union and representatives of the Foundrymen's Defense Association, the molders were granted an increase of 5 per cent over the wages paid during 1910. The increase becomes effective Jan. 1, 1911, and runs for one year.

This is in accordance with the custom of the employers and employees in vogue for several years. A meeting is held each December, when the wage agreement is discussed and settled, fixing the compensation for the coming year.

A report is in circulation today to the effect that the apprentices at the Wehrle Company's plant were granted an increase of 10 per cent, and that they returned to work.

An Advocate man called at the Wehrle plant this morning and Mr. Wehrle stated that the only increase he knew about was that granted to the molders. He stated that the apprentices were working yesterday.

LITTLE NEWSMADE HAPPY.

The press and employees of Koster & Katz restaurant raised a handsome purse, which made a splendid Christmas for Joseph Dandora, a little orphaned boy. Two suits of clothes, underwear, stockings, shoes, rubber boots, cap, gloves, etc., in fact, the entire outfit, were given to him. But the present which made his heart glow and was a beautiful fish mail wagon and four dollars in money he, after the purchases had been made, carried with him. He says that this is his happiest Christmas.

The Newark Trust Company will observe Monday, December 26, as a local holiday.

Brown Strader of the Newark Telephone company has gone to Somerset for Christmas.

RED CROSS FUND NOT SO LARGE FOR THIS YEAR

In spite of the worthy cause for which the people originated the Red Cross stamps, a decided decline in popularity, now and not so many as several thousands were sold this year as during the Christmas season of 1909.

Last year the Powers-Miller company was the only store to handle the stamps and 25,000 were sold. This year to the sale of this store, was only 10,000, but the stamps are also now on sale at the Every Drug Store and the two newspaper offices. Mr. Evans stated today that the sale at his place had so far reached only about 500, while the newspapers each report about the same.

The money derived from the sale will be sent to the Red Cross Society, that is to the division headquarters in Columbus, which in turn forwards the sum to the National Society at Washington. Seventy per cent of the money is used for the state fund, while thirty per cent is given to the National Society for the public fund.

The money is devoted to the prevention and cure of tuberculosis by the society, and the state fund is used in the maintenance and erection of hospitals for the afflicted, while the public fund is used to educate the public to the prevention and eradication of the disease.

The President of the United States is the president of the society and the Red Cross stamps are the only articles permitted to be sold in the corridors or postoffices and other public buildings.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this.
